THURSDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1907.

Fair Oklahoma gets a bad smooth at the very start of her staid career with a lynching.

Barre merchants have no reason to complain of the holiday trade thus far, considering the conditions.

All that remains of the 1874 deer killed in Vermont during the last open season are the tales of "prowess" of the hunters.

Senator Proctor introduced a bill into Congress for a new federal building for Hillside, and his erstwhile detractor there exclaims "Good Kris Kringle!" So!

We note with pleasure that the "peace on earth" spirit pervaded the editorial sanctum of the St. Johnsbury Caledonian to such an extent that the editor congratulated his local contemporary, The Republican, on its new Simplex type-setting machine.

Bellows Falls, or rather Rockingham, has a local historian who has just presented a new chronology of his town.
Let other Vermont communities likewise raise up historians. When the material gets voluminous, complex and uncertain, there will be little likelihood of so valuable work being attempted. So the time to begin is now.

The Groton Times slides a brand new candidate for governor into Vermont's Christmas stocking—ex-Mayor John W.
Gordon of Barre. Washington county is getting almost as bad as Windham.—St.
Johnsbury Republican.

Still, if Washington and Windham counties "have the goods," why not present them? It will be noticed in this case, however, that Washington county modestly left the "nominating" to Caldonia county.

CHELSEA.

The remains of Sarah Jane Ware were brought here from Toronto, Canada, for burial, arriving here Monday afternoon, accompanied by her son-in-law, Sidney W. Grant. Mrs. Ware will be remembered by many of the older residents as the adopted daughter of the late Stephen Montague, who lived on Maple avenue in the house now occupied by the Misses Hall. The deceased was twice married, her first husband being Charles Comstock, whom many of our citizens will remember as a popular clerk in the store of the late William Dickenson. Mrs.
Ware was 75 years old and died from heart trouble. The interment was in the Montague family lot in Highland cemetery.

Notice C. L. U. Delegates.

A regular meeting of the Central Labor Union of Barre and vicinity will be held on Friday evening, December 27, at 7:30 in Nichols' block. Jas.
Muteh, secretary.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

On January 1, 1908, we mean to make a change in our business methods, which will be to your interest as well as ours.

For a long time we've been studying the question of Cash or Credit in running a successful store, and have sought the advice of all the wise heads from Benjamin Franklin down on this point, and the sum of the opinion is that a Cash System is decidedly the best for customers and ourselves.

"He That Pays Ready Money Escapes Paying Interest."

If you pay us Cash we can pay Cash to the manufacturers. We both escape paying interest, so both pay less than by the credit method.

So all our dealings after January 1, 1908, are to be on a strictly Cash basis. We mean to give you the best goods to be had at the least possible price.
